Paraphrased by George Herbert (1593-1633)

The God of love my shepherd is
Psalm 23

University, by Charles Collignon (1725-85)
Edited and a symphony added by Francis Roads

[♩=100]

Soprano

1. The God of love my shepherd is, And he that doth me feed;
2. He leads me to the tender grass, Where I both feed and rest;
3. Or if I stray, he doth convert, And bring my mind in frame,
4. Yea, in death's shadow black abode Well may I walk, not fear;
5. Surely thy sweet and wondrous love Shall measure all my days;

While he is mine and I am his, What can I want or need?
Then to the streams that gently pass: In both I have the best.
And all this not for my desert, But for his holy name.
For thou art with me, and thy rod To guide, thy staff to bear.
And as it never shall remove, So neither shall my praise.
