

London Gallery Quire 186

O God of Bethel, by whose hand

Philip Doddridge (1702-51),
as in Scottish Paraphrases (1781)

St. Paul, Chalmer's Collection, (1749)
Edited and a symphony added by Francis Roads

[♩=120]

Soprano [Air]

1. O God of Be - thel, by whose hand Thy peo - ple still are fed;
2. Our vows, our pray'rs, we now pre - sent Be - fore thy throne of grace;
3. Through each per - plex - ing path of life Our wand - 'ring foot - steps guide;
4. O spread thy cov - 'ring wings a - round, Till all our wand - 'rings cease,

Alto

Tenor

1. O God of Be - thel, by whose hand Thy peo - ple still are fed;
2. Our vows, our pray'rs, we now pre - sent Be - fore thy throne of grace;
3. Through each per - plex - ing path of life Our wand - 'ring foot - steps guide;
4. O spread thy cov - 'ring wings a - round, Till all our wand - 'rings cease,

Bass

10

S

Who through this earth - ly pil - gri - mage Hast all our fa - thers led.
God of our fa - thers, be the God Of their suc - ceed - ing race.
Give us each day our dai - ly bread, And rai - ment fit pro - vide.
And at our Fa - ther's loved a - bode Our souls ar - rive in peace.

A

T

Who through this earth - ly pil - gri - mage Hast all our fa - thers led.
God of our fa - thers, be the God Of their suc - ceed - ing race.
Give us each day our dai - ly bread, And rai - ment fit pro - vide.
And at our Fa - ther's loved a - bode Our souls ar - rive in peace.

B

19

Symphony

S

A

T

B