

London Gallery Quire 538

Anon.

Awake, each heart, rejoice and sing

Anon.
Edited by Francis Roads

[Air] $\text{♩} = 120$

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

1. A - wake each heart, re - joice and sing, Sa - lute the morn when Christ our King As -
 2. "Em - ma - nuel" is the Sa - viour's name Yes, "God with us": a glo - rious theme! Shout,
 3. The air, by an - gel voic - es rent, Re - e - choes forth the great e - vent, While
 4. Now more let man yield to des - pair, Since Christ is come our ills to share! Let

5

S

A

T

B

sumes our flesh and blood: Sin - ners, 'twas life for you and me When Christ par - took our shout the news a - broad! With speed the won - drous ti - dings tell, How God des - cends on earth and sky ap - plaud: His birth, pro - claim - ed by the star, Now leads the Ma - gi those who oft have trod Where cares a - bound, where sin and death Have shed a - broad their

10

S

A

T

B

mi - se - ry, All hail! the Sa - viour God, All hail! the Sa - viour God.
earth to dwell: All hail, the babe, the God! All hail, the babe, the God!
 from a - far To hail their in - fant God! To hail their in - fant God!
vil - est breath, Sing, "Hail!" all hail! all hail! All hail the Sa - viour God!"

Symphony