

London Gallery Quire 657

O all ye nations of the world

Thomas Norton (1532–84)

Psalm 44 by Richard Brimley fl. 1563

Edited by Nicholas Markwell

[♩ = 100]

Soprano
 O all ye na - tions of the world, praise ye the Lord al - ways ;
 And all ye peo - ple ev - ery where, set forth his no - ble praise :

Alto
 O all ye na - tions of the world, praise ye the Lord al - ways ;
 And all ye peo - ple ev - ery where, set forth his no - ble praise :

Tenor
 [Air]
 O all ye na - tions of the world, praise ye the Lord al - ways ;
 And all ye peo - ple ev - ery where, set forth his no - ble praise :

Bass
 O all ye na - tions of the world, praise ye the Lord al - ways ;
 And all ye peo - ple ev - ery where, set forth his no - ble praise :

6

S
 For great his kind - ness is to us, his truth doth not de - cay ; Where -

A
 For great his kind - ness is to us, his truth doth not de - cay ;

T
 For great his kind - ness is to us, his truth doth not de - cay ;

B
 For great his kind - ness is to us, his truth doth not de - cay ;

11

S
 -fore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord al - way.

A
 Where - fore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord al - way.

T
 Where - fore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord al - way.

B
 Where - fore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord al - way.