

London Gallery Quire 694

John Hampden Gurney (1802–62)
Psalms and Hymns for Public Worship, 1851

Gallway by Edward Miller (1735–1807)
Psalm Tunes Composed in Four Parts for Choirs or Singers, 1794
 Edited by Nicholas Markwell

Fair waved the golden corn

[♩=96]

Soprano [Air]

1. Fair waved the gold - en corn, In Ca - naan's
 2. To God, so good and great, Their cheer - ful
 3. For thus the ho - ly word, Spo - ken by
 4. Like Is - rael, Lord, we give Our ear - liest
 5. Thine is our youth - ful prime, And life and
 6. In wis - dom let us grow, As years and

Alto

Tenor

1. Fair waved the gold - en corn, In Ca - naan's
 2. To God, so good and great, Their cheer - ful
 3. For thus the ho - ly word, Spo - ken by
 4. Like Is - rael, Lord, we give Our ear - liest
 5. Thine is our youth - ful prime, And life and
 6. In wis - dom let us grow, As years and

Bass

7

S

plea - sant land, When full of joy, some shin - ing morn, thanks they pour, Then car - ry to His tem - ple - gate
 Mo - ses ran - "The first ripe ears are for the Lord,
fruits to Thee, And pray that, long as we shall live,
 all its powers; Be with us in our morn - ing time,
strength are given, That we may serve Thy Church be - low,

A

T

plea - sant land, When full of joy, some shin - ing morn,
thanks they pour, Then car - ry to His tem - ple - gate
 Mo - ses ran - "The first ripe ears are for the Lord,
fruits to Thee, And pray that, long as we shall live,
 all its powers; Be with us in our morn - ing time,
strength are given, That we may serve Thy Church be - low,

B

14

S

Went forth the rea - per - band.
The choic - est of their store.
 The rest He gives to man."
We may Thy child - ren be.
 And bless our even - ing hours.
And join Thy saints in heaven.

A

T

Went forth the rea - per - band.
The choic - est of their store.
 The rest He gives to man."
We may Thy child - ren be.
 And bless our even - ing hours.
And join Thy saints in heaven.

B